Dear Lynn.

On return home I find that one of my girls due next month is to have twins - confirmed by X-ray last Tuesday. She saw an unpleasant Obstetrician on Wednesday but yesterday I was able to go with her to see a more pleasant one who is just commencing practice. The delivery is arranged for Loh-ch Women's.

I felt it would be of help to us if you could describe the experience of yourself & your "twin Parents." Things like how you knew about the twins, the process of making arrangements, the birth & coming home.

Bathy is to see the obstetrician again

Thursday.

Your letter could be a
support to her wishes.

I'll try to catch the next post so you get this letter
soon as possible.

Thank you,

Regards from,

Mumukshu.
