Mr A G Malcolm,
Minister of Health,
Parliament Buildings,
WELLINGTON.

Dear Mr Malcolm,

Thankyou for your letter of 19 March, 1982 regarding remuneration for Domiciliary Midwives.

Since the 6 weeks deferrment of the proposed meeting, as you suggested, has now elapsed, it would be much appreciated if a meeting between yourself and the Domiciliary Midwives in Wellington could now be arranged so that some important issues can be discussed.

Yours sincerely,

Lynne McLean.
