Dear MaryAnn,

I am wanting to arrange a regional meeting of domiciliary midwives. I understand that the Thames Home Birth Association is organizing a regional meeting for the weekend of November 5th. Is there any free time left in the agenda for the weekend that the midwives could meet amongst themselves?

The Auckland Home Birth Association is having a Self Development Seminar on the weekend of October 15th and 16th. Possibly more midwives may attend ~~this~~, mainly because so many live in Auckland and this may be the best weekend to organize said meeting.

I will clarify this after hearing back from you and let you know which weekend would suit. Probably about 4 hours would do for the meeting. Perhaps either on the Friday or Saturday night of either weekend. I think Sunday night would not be suitable as every one will probably be tired after the weekends' activities.

Regards,

Gillian Mcnicoll
