Dear Bronwyn.

Here's the grandé annual effort of the NAAHS

Yet to have any official release of this document.

The NAAHS is making drastic moves over the next 6 weeks prior to cost saving submissions to the Board for approval. They see this contract as one of them. However Lynley has only now been approached to do a financial feasibility study. If they have it up and going they won't have to pay Lynley any redundancy either - another incentive.

It has been a pretty tardy power play.

Still good news is Dawn has finally gone down the road with her redundancy stuffed under her suspender with < 2 years to retirement. - quite "sad" <sup>so</sup> some staff say but she created every bit of it. I'll be doing all in my conscious will not to end up like that one! Spare us!

So - have a good session with this <sup>meets you</sup> < means piece of garble and shall be in New Plymouth! Cheers for this month, feli

Thanks for returning that call Thursday - it's not all so bad - occasional respite. You have such incredible enthusiasm + det
