

A camera on domestic life in contemporary New Zealand... Julie Riley's portrait of a domiciliary midwife, Ursula Helem.

Festival

A church service and a garden party begin events on the Sunday. Entertainment at the latter includes Marlene Le Cren's dancers, the Natural Magic Puppet Show, Rene, the gypsy conjuror, and a Maori concert party.

lav. ing. He is a painter, maker, and restorer.

Modern music

Continuum, the contemporary music ensemble of the Christchurch Symphony Orchestra, will present the last concert of its 1987 early-evening series this evening at 5.45 p.m. in the Great Hall at the Arts Centre.

Modern works by New Zealand and overseas composers and a premiere of a new work by a young composer will provide the programme.

A lighthearted work comes from the pen of local composer Chloe Moon. The "Divertimento for Woodwind Trio" was designed to amuse the listener and was written in 1982 for a student trio at the University of Canterbury.

International composers

'Showboat' aud on Sunday

The Christchurch Gilbert and Sullivan Society is such it set the tone and style for 'South Pacific,' 'Oklahoma,' and, more recently 'Evita' and 'Les

the act wh 'Ca Ma wo pla