Dear Bronwen,

Thanks for the letters and no doubt I have left this a bit late but my views on the increase is - it is too little. Since what we want to do is put us (domestically) on a par with hospitals to give midwives a real choice, I think we should take a charge nurse salary and decide that by the 60 births a year. I am not sure what it is now but I imagine it is a princely sum. It might at first appear too ~~to~~ much but we are on call 24hrs, we work unsocial hours, and we do have sole responsibility. I talked to Gill Williams and she thinks that is fair enough.

add is my $10 subscription Hope you had a good re in Australia

Sincerely
Jane Marshall.
