Birth group given grant

Birth and Beyond, a Wellington group advocating a freer approach to birth, has been given a $6000 grant by the Mental Health Foundation.

The grant has been made subject to the group finding premises to set up a birth service and a parent resource centre. The foundation said that a similar amount could be made available next year.

Birth and Beyond is negotiating the lease of an Owen Street property in Newtown with the Wellington Hospital Board.

Birth and Beyond said the centre would be used for deliveries, antenatal classes and as a resource centre for parents who want an alternative to existing hospital services.
