Dear Ms Macfarlane,

Thank you for your letter dated 11th November telling of your recent committee meeting re the financial difficulties of your domiciliary midwives.

You could perhaps pass on to them the fact that financial members of the N.Z. Homoeopathic Society receive a 10% discount for goods bought from us.

There are over 700 such members now, so though it is taxing our discount budget somewhat we are still offering this, even though our import licence is limited.

It seems as if the time is soon approaching when your midwives may have to review their policy of giving medicines free to patients. Most patients/customers when choosing an alternative type of medicine don't mind paying something. And Homoeopathic medicine is still much cheaper - under $2 for the average remedy compared with more than double that for the average allopathic prescription.

Wishing you and your society all the best,

Yours etc

B. K. Moore
