Dear Barbara,

Thank you for your letter, and for asking me to chair the plenary session on Sunday afternoon. In one way I would love to, but I've just resolved not to take on any more commitments, and so I'm going to say no. Sorry if this puts you in a spot, but I'm sure there are plenty of other possibilities around!

We really look forward to meeting you all again!

Sincerely,

Rosmary Chartrand.
