 HOME BIRTH AUSTRALIA NATIONAL CONFERENCE 1982 **

Venue: UNITING CHURCH, RICHARDSON STREET, MIDDLE PARK

The aims of this conference are to allow those involved in homebirth in Australia to meet each other, share their experience, ideas, skills and difficulties, and from this to set aims and make resolutions on a national level about a number of important issues.

Areas of particular interest at present are: legislation restricting homebirth choices and practices, medical benefits refunding, training of birth helpers, direct entry midwifery courses, changes in the type of people requesting homebirth and anything arising during the conference itself.
