

DX DEMAND

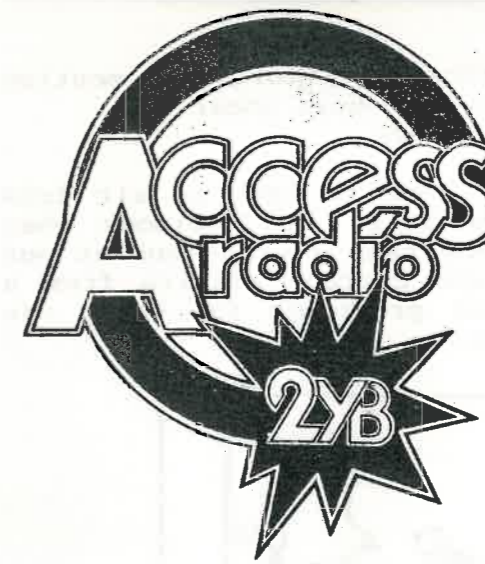

The NZ Radio DX League has just entered its third year of programmes with news of Pacific-wide demand. Radio Tuvalu on the island of Funafuti, 3CCC FM Hampden Victoria, 3MCR Dandenong Victoria, and 4BC Brisbane have all expressed an interest in receiving the programme regularly for their own use. The DX League's monthly programme looks at trends in the changing world of radio and television broadcasting in New Zealand, Australia, and the Pacific. Presenter David Riquish has written to 350 TV and radio stations in the region to broaden the programmes news sources so watch out for the NZ Radio DX League's next programme on April 6th at 12.50pm.

ABOUT THE NEWS

Since joining the Access team in June 1984 I've been responsible for producing the monthly newsletter. In attempting to improve it some progress has been made however, I don't think the newsletter can reach its full potential until you, our listeners and programme makers, have a lot more input. The newsletter is open to your contributions and comments. Write to me about what you like or dislike, send poems or short stories, cartoons, graphics or news of content for upcoming programmes - we're open to almost anything! I'm working at Access courtesy of a Labour Department sponsored work scheme but alas, it only runs for one year so by June this year I'll be off to seek my fortune in the big wide world beyond Broadcasting House. That makes your involvement even more important. Left unattended, the newsletter may return to the days when it was produced when and if other staff members could spare the time so if you can contribute or help with compiling and layout please get in touch - TODAY

A REMINDER

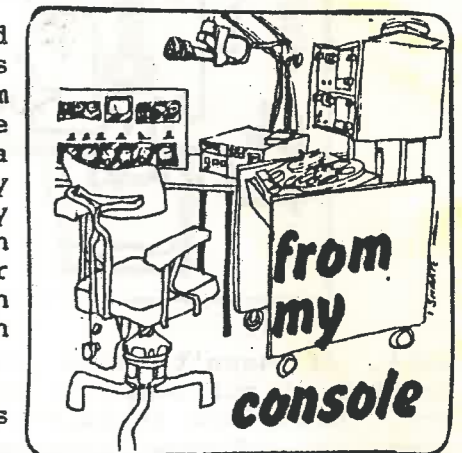

Access Radio has posters, stickers, both car and general, and "How To Use Access Radio" booklets to publicise the station. If you can display a poster or stickers at work, at your club or community hall, on the car etc please let us know. We still have some Access sweatshirts in smaller sizes. At $18.00 they're very good value, and with the cold weather coming on, you shouldn't be without one. Finally, the newsletter is available to anyone so if you know someone who'd like to be put on the mailing list give us a call.

ISSUE NUMBER 32
MARCH/APRIL 1985

There are several new arrivals and departures over the next few weeks and one or two changes too. From March 24th the German programme can be heard on Sundays. In a straight swap the Samoan Advisory Council have moved to a monthly half hour slot following Samoan Music at 9.00pm on Fridays. Peter Sowa's German programme slots in between the Dutch and Polish programmes at 4.00pm fortnightly.

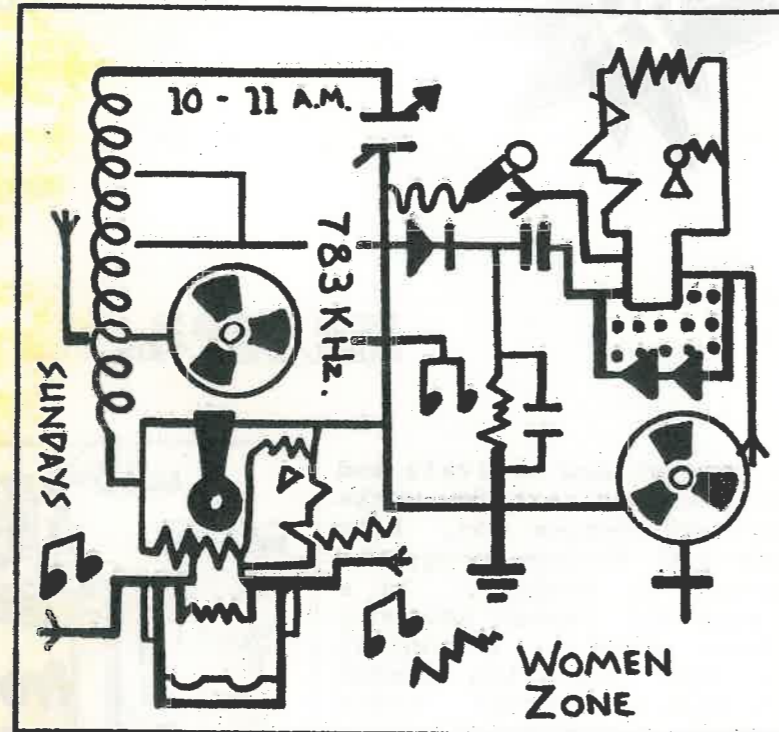

The people from Trade Aid join us on March 23rd for the first programme in a new series. Over the next few months they'll look at the philosophy of Trade Aid and why it differs from solely commercial ventures, focus on the groups who's products they sell, and discuss areas where Trade Aid are working for change. Trade Aid will play fortnightly on Saturdays at 9.50am.

In the last newsletter I mentioned that Tom Appleton had turned his hand to Lomir Alle Singen, a programme including

Yiddish music and poetry. Unfortunately I forgot to mention the day or the time of the programme so here goes:
Lomir Alle Singen - Saturdays at 1.00pm.

As promised, a revitalised Women Zone is back on air from March 24th. "Sexist assumptions fall like dominoes when women get behind the microphone and take a hard look at our culture, our history, politics and current affairs from a womens perspective". The feminist programme for women can now be heard on Sundays at 10.00am.

Well, it hasn't taken some people long to recognise the success of our computer program broadcasts and get in on the act. Radio New Zealand's 'Tonight Show' has just started a computer software programme of its own which will make programs available throughout the country. There is a drawback though; they're on at 3.30 in the morning! Don't worry though we won't be following their lead.

Bad news for boogie lovers. Leigh Hodgson's popular Boogie Disease comes to an end on March 16th. Leigh is going abroad for a few months, and his concoction of blues and rhythm and blues, plus some unusual bits and pieces will be missed by a great many people. We hope he will rejoin us on his return but in the meantime if you, or a group of you would like to have a go at presenting Boogie Disease and have a good collection of blues music give us a call.

Listeners Thankyou! Here are some snippets from the many letters and cards we've had so far this year.

"I think Access Radio is great! A very worthwhile departure from the slick, impersonal and insincere radio broadcasts we've almost taken as the only possible format."

Neville Sinclair
North Canterbury

"I particularly enjoy your musical programmes, blues, jazz, country and western etc. Your announcers must certainly know their respective topics."

Bill Squires
Wellington

"As former dedicated listeners to the Concert Programme we wish to comment that Access Radio music is superb. We are extremely impressed."

Isobel Siroy
Wanganui

"Glad to report your signal recorded up here in the Coromandel Peninsula. Excellent programmes, some fading out of signal but the content more than compensates for that."

Peter Green
Colville

"I regularly listen to some Access programmes and find them variable but interesting on the whole. I like Women Zone, Lesbians, Women's Music, Talking Union, Tenants, Peace Report plus New Directions. I also enjoy the musical parts of various ethnic programmes, preferring them to 2YA's afternoon. Keep up the good work."

Joyce Cameron
Paekakariki

The general opinion speaks for itself.
