AUCKLAND

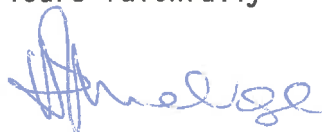

Our Association is arranging an evening in support of HELP Foundation. We are writing to you as we feel that members of your organisation may be interested in supporting HELP and also interested in hearing the speaker arranged for the evening.

Diony Young is an expatriate New Zealander with a strong interest in the area of health care particularly relating to childbirth. She has wide experience in the USA as a consumer advocate and acts as adviser in respect of investigations into medical malpractice. Diony is a lively and informed speaker and you are likely to find her speech very stimulating.

Enclosed is a pamphlet issued by HELP Foundation explaining HELP's activities in more detail. Enrolment forms are also enclosed (please photocopy if more are required). Please complete and forward to us as soon as possible.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to ring me at 775-009, or Shayne Matheson at 34 617.

Yours faithfully

H. Melrose

AWLA invites you to attend an evening in support of
HELP FOUNDATION

Speaker: Diony Young BA

Topic: "Women, Childbirth and the Law"

Diony is a mother and consumer advocate for maternal health and infant care residing in the USA. As an expatriate New Zealander Diony has retained a keen interest in NZ health care.

Diony has chaired two major seminars on medical malpractice in the USA and London. She has written for medical journals and contributed in many other areas in the USA.

A lively, informed and interesting speaker, we are fortunate that Diony has agreed to give us her time on a private visit to NZ.
